

Concerning unsolicited sales calls from so-called "established business relationships" : I have no desire to receive unsolicited sales calls of any kind. They waste time and energy and are a nuisance. Before the Indiana no-call policy I was actually screening all calls through my answering machine. Please do not damage the peace this policy has created.